

THE EASTERN REGIONAL HEALTH AUTHORITY

POSITION DESCRIPTION

1. JOB TITLE	2. DIVISION		3. DEPARTMENT
REGISTRAR (ANAESTHESIA AND INTENSIVE CARE)	SANGRE GRANDE HOS	SPITAL	ANAESTHESIA AND INTENSIVE CARE UNIT
4. ORGANISATIONAL RELATIONSHIP		5. NATURE & SCOPE
The Registrar (Intensive Care) will report to the designated Head of Department/Specialist Medical Officer (Anaesthesia and Intensive Care).		The Registrar (Anaesthesia and Intensive Care) is responsible for the diagnosis, assessment and management of critical care patients in a hospital or Intensive Care Unit. The officer is also responsible for the provision of anaesthesia services in the operating theatre or other designated area.
6. SPECIFIC ACCOUNTABILITIES
The Registrar (Anaesthesia and	I Intensive Care):
 Provides safe and effective aneasthesia for patients requiring elective and emergency procedures. Supervises and trains House Officers in the conduct of Anaesthesia and critical care management. Diagnoses, assesses and initiates the treatment for patients requiring critical care management. Develops treatment plans for patients requiring critical care management including but not limited to cardiopulmonary resuscitation, emergency airway management, respiratory and ventilatory support, preparation for renal replacement therapy, administration of pharmacological cardiac support and other organ support processes and procedures that may be required. Conducts perioperative management as may be required specific to the field of Aneasthesia including but not limited to preoperative assessment, intraoperative management through the provision of sedation, general, regional or local anaesthesia and their required procedures. Conducts follow up care via postoperative care and pain management including patient controlled analgesia devices and catheters. Conducts daily ward rounds when assigned to the Intensive Care Unit. Updates the Specialist Medical Officer (Anaesthesia and Intensive Care) of events applicable to the elective and emergency Anaesthesia services and critical care services. Contributes to the quality improvement, risk management initiatives and policy development so that the overall Anaesthesia and critical care service is of highest quality and reflective of best practice. Provides follow up care through ward rounds, reviews and clinics. Collaborates in the provision of medical education to staff assigned to the unit when required.
7. KEY KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES
 Knowledge of medical jurisprudence. Considerable knowledge of the principles and practices in the field of Anaesthesia and Intensive Care. Some knowledge of administrative practices and procedures, rules, regulations policies and standards related to medical services. Ability to supervise and aid in the development of junior medical staff. Ability to gain the co-operation and confidence of patients and to establish and maintain effective working relationships with other employees and the public.
8. MINIMUM TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE
 possession of a medical Specialist registration in At least five (5) years' e Registration as a medical 	degree from a recognize the field with the Meder experience in the field of al practitioner by the M	zed school of medicine. lical Board of Trinidad an of Anaesthesia/Intensive C ledical Board of Trinidad	Care.
Any equivalent combination	ation of experience and	training.

9. SUI	PERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES
	House Officer
	Medical Interns
10. CC	OMMUNICATION AND WORKING RELATIONSHIP
Inter	nal:
	Medical Director
	Manager-Hospital Administration
	Manager- Para-Clinical Services
	Specialist Medical Officer
	Nursing Personnel
	Other Heads of Department
Exter	rnal:
	Public
	University of the West Indies
	Other Regional Health Authorities
	Private Medical Institutions
	General practitioners in the area	